REVISED AGENDA

- I. Call to Order
- II. Roll Call
- III. Pledge of Allegiance
- IV. Good News Items
 - John Steck has won the opportunity to represent Henderson County at Youth Day in Springfield for the Western Illinois Electrical Coop on Wednesday, April 18. He will be meeting with representatives at the State Capitol and will be attending with about 300 other students. Congratulations, John!
 - West Central High School Art students attended the annual Lincoln Trail Conference Art Show on Monday, March 19, 2018. Nine artworks were submitted. Gabrielle Tharpe received a second place ribbon in the Tempera Paint category; Aryanne Westfall received a second place ribbon in the Computer Graphics category; and Madison McBride received a third place ribbon in the Oil/Acrylic Paint – Landscape category. In addition to the art show, the students participated in art workshops around the Monmouth College campus. We are very proud of the artists!
 - Todd Lant, Senior at West Central High School, was selected as the 2017-2018 Chief Shaubena Chapter of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizens Award recipient.
 - West Central High School welcomed eight new inductees into the National Honor Society on Monday, March 19, 2018. The new members include: Macy Benge, Payton Clark, Peyton Jack, Jacob Keever, Molly Parsons, Danielle Rhinehart, Jenna Robertson, and Courtney Torrance. Thank you to Alicia Pence for her inspiring words.
 - The elementary students participated in the OSF Nutrition poster contest and brought home several ribbons.
 - The early childhood team hosted a Jim Gill concert, which turned out to be an exciting evening.
 - Mrs. Hennings submitted a project on DonorsChoose.org and it was fully funded by caring community members. They will be getting a dry erase table, stools, and other supplies for small group work.
