Highway 34, R.R. #1, Biggsville, Illinois

REVISED AGENDA

- I. Call to Order
- II. Roll Call
- III. Pledge of Allegiance
- IV. Good News Items
  - Report from Elementary Enrichment Class
  - Early childhood team planned both a screening and a family night which were well attended.
  - Fourteen WCMS students advanced to the state track meet.
  - The WCMS Scholastic Bowl team won regionals and placed 3rd at sectionals. This was their first ever trip to sectionals.
  - Seniors were honored with various awards and scholarships on May 3. We had a great turnout for Honors Night!
  - The District administered the required Illinois Science Assessment which completes our state testing for the year.
  - Showcase Night provided a great opportunity for the District to share projects, presentations, and classroom activities with community members. Over 60 families/community members were in attendance. Over $150 was raised through a silent auction for the PRIDE fund at the high school.
  - Several students throughout the District participated in the Courageous Smiles track event bringing back many medals.
  - IPA sponsored a recognition breakfast for students within the district who exhibit the characteristics of good citizens. The following students were recognized for their outstanding contributions to the school culture and academic success:
WCE: Lily Lenzer and Kadie Dieckow, WCMS: Dylan Gibbs and Carly Lafary, WCHS: Vanessa Russi and John Clem.
  - The Stronghurst Lions Club and the Henderson County Soil and Conservation Department graciously donated trees to the 4th grade students in observance of Arbor Day.
  - West Central is one of the top five chapters who participated in the Harvest for All – FFA Challenge Campaign.
